

DROP-OFF LOCATIONS FOR HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE, WHITE GOODS AND ELECTRONICS FROM TYPHOON CLEAN-UP

The Bureau of Environmental and Coastal Quality and the US Environmental Protection Agency will accept household hazardous waste, white goods, and electronics generated as part of the clean-up from Typhoon Yutu.

Household Hazardous Waste Types

Cleaners (such as bleach and ammonia)

Pesticides

Paint & Workshop Supplies

Automotive Products

Flammable Products (such as oil, gas, and propane)

Lawn & Garden Products

Fluorescent Light Bulbs

Thermometers

Batteries

Other Household Chemicals

White Goods Types:

Air Conditioners

Refrigerators

Freezers

Microwave Ovens

Washing Machines

Dryers

Water Heaters

Electronics Types:

Televisions

Computer Processors

Computer Monitors

Printers

Other electronic products

DROP-OFF LOCATIONS AND SCHEDULE

Lower Base Transfer Station November 12 th -December 2 nd 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM 7 days a week	As Gonno Staging Area (Kobler Airfield, near Tottottville) November 12 th -December 2 nd 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM 7 days a week
---	--

WE DO NOT accept: commercial or industrial waste, medical waste, construction materials.

YOU MUST BRING ALL ITEMS TO DROP-OFF LOCATIONS. DO NOT PLACE ITEMS BY THE ROAD.

For more information on household hazardous waste or white goods disposal, please contact the CNMI BECQ at 664-8500.